Trattoria provides the Kitsilano area with a place to gather offering a relaxed atmosphere for food and wine lovers.

The restaurant seats 90, including a social bar lounge area as well as an intimate patio for 20. "We envisioned a restaurant that would complement any neighbourhood, in a space that would showcase simple comfort food," says Emad Yacoub.

The menu amps up traditional Italian trattoria-style cuisine. A few favourites include: bruschetta with heirloom tomatoes, basil and olive oil, signature hand stretched thin-crust forno-baked pizzas, antipasto platters replete with eggplant parmigiana, forno roasted clams, Signature Meatballs and calamari with spicy tomato fonduta, signature pasta platter with spaghetti and meatballs, penne pomodoro, gnocchi pesto and lasagna, and for dessert, house-made tiramisu and chocolate filled fritters.

Fifty wine and champagne selections have been chosen to complement the food offerings. They represent major wine regions in Italy – Tuscany, Piedmont, Veneto and Sicily – as well as a few boutique California and BC wineries. Every neighbourhood needs a Trattoria.

"The brand-new and more casual twin of Alberni's popular Italian Kitchen brought licks of chic to West Fourth when it opened this past summer. Competent, focused cooking anchored by great prices, with few dishes exceeding the $15 mark. Enthusiastic service. Accessible wine list."

- Vancouver Magazine

"And the fish? The fresh whole trout baked fast and crispy in the fiery pizza ovens is spectacular."

- The Globe & Mail

"At the Trattoria... it comes down to good food, great service and everyday prices for yummy, yummy food."
