CHAMPAGNE

“While Louis XIV disliked champagne, Louis XV shared it with his mistresses, and Louis XVI preferred still wine. Napoleon drank it only for celebrations, favouring Burgundy, while Louis XVIII liked sweet wines and Charles X preferred eaux de vie. Louis-Philippe I supported champagne’s growth without drinking it, and Napoleon III had limited interest but it was during his reign that the first champagne ads appeared and artists began shaping the image of champagne.

This marked the start of rare, artist-designed bottles. The old-style silhouette, based on a vintage bottle found in a vault, is now used for the most prestigious cuvées, including Dom Pérignon, La Grande Dame, Dom Ruinart, and Comtes de Champagne. Each house developed its own signature cuvée, often in collaboration with artists to dress the bottle.”
